

WARD COVE AND MOUNTAIN POINT ROUTE

Aircraft should monitor 122.70 between Ward Cove and New Eddystone Rock. Report position, altitude and direction of flight.

Aircraft should monitor 122.75 while in the Rudyerd Bay tour area.

Pilots are cautioned to remain at least 500 feet away from any person, vessel, vehicle or structure.

Recommended altitudes are 1500 feet AGL and above outbound, 1000 feet AGL and below inbound.

Reporting points are as follows:

- Ward Cove
- Mirror Lake
- New Eddystone Rock
- Ella Lake
- Gnat Cove
- Mountain Point
- Rudyerd Bay – Exercise extreme caution: high traffic area

CAUTION:
HELICOPTER TRAFFIC IN THE WARD COVE DRAINAGE AREA.

See Example of this route on the opposite Page.

